

Helen Dickerson

January 13, 1944 - December 29, 2004

Helen Mildred Dickerson, the second oldest child of the late Sherman and Lillie Mae Blue, was born on January 13, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. She died suddenly and entered eternal rest on December 29, 2004. At a tender age, she was baptized and gave her life to the Lord Jesus Christ. During her childhood, she attended Gillis Memorial Baptist Church and later became a member of Truth and Love Lighthouse International Church. Helen was a graduate of Carver Vocational Technical High School. Throughout her life, she wanted to help others. Therefore, she pursued a career in nursing by graduating from Baltimore City Community College's nursing program and later Coppin State College. She is a retiree of the Greater Baltimore Medical Center's Nursing Department. After retirement, she was the manager/proprietor of several assisted living facilities until her death. Some of Helen's interests were shopping, dancing, music and most of all, spending time with family and friends. She spent countless hours conversing with friends and family via telephone to wee hours into the night. Helen's favorite foods were crabs and an assortment of home-cooked foods from her devoted husband. In addition, it was often that she was seen socializing with her loving sisters and their spouses. On February 3, 1962, Helen was united in marriage to Leon R. Dickerson, Jr. They made their home in Owings Mills and have loved each other for over forty-four years. Out of this union, three children were born; twin sons, the late Leon R. III, Cleon, Sr. and one daughter, Adrienne. In addition, she was overjoyed with love for one grandson, Cleon Jr.

(C.J.) and one granddaughter, Miranda (Randy). Helen was a kind, loving, and giving wife and mother. She was also a dedicated friend to many. She truly loved her children; she was not just their mother, but also their mentor. On December 15, 2001, one son, Leon R. Dickerson III, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn: her committed husband, Leon R. Dickerson, Jr.; son, Cleon, Sr.; daughter, Adrienne; grandson, Cleon, Jr. (C.J.); granddaughter, Miranda; brother, Sherman Thomas Blue; two sisters, Lillian Perry and youngest sister Shirley Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ To the family of Helen Dickerson. Please accept my deepest sympathy for loss of your mom, wife and best friend. I can only imagine how difficult it is for your family and my heart truly goes out to you all. This enemy, death has no boundaries and cares for no one. The "sting" it brings with it makes life so unbearable you wonder if it's worth living. Our perfect Heavenly Father Jehovah knows exactly what you're going through and what you are feeling. He, too, lost someone he loved very much and that was His son, Jesus. Please rest assured that He can relate. He's so loving and good in that because Jesus died for us, means that we have hope. The reason why we hurt so much is because we were created to live forever. Death, though it exists, is NOT normal. The bible proves to be a source of comfort to those who are lowly and broken in heart. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully you residents of the dust." The void you feel, though great will only be temporary. Another promise made to us is at Revelation 21:3,4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things will have passed away." One more scripture that is so encouraging is found at John 5:28,29. Please read this one from your copy of the bible and compare the other two as well. I hope you have been able to be comforted and may you find relief in these promises.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. At times like this we find that we may need some encouragement. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from God's word the Bible. Notice what it says at Isaiah 25:8,9...He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. I hope that you can find some comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear one. Acts 24:15 assures us "there is going to be a resurrection." That happy time will take place right here on earth. Just as Jesus resurrected people in the past, he will do it again.(John 11:43,44) Jesus had this promise recorded at Revelation 21:3-5: Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43 May these divinely inspired promises strengthen you until those promises they take place.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
