

Helen Deloris Elder

January 26, 1948 - August 15, 2011

Helen Deloris Elder was born January 26, 1948 to the late Deacon Soloman Moses, Sr. and the late Lila Mae Moses in Lee County, South Carolina. She was also preceded in death by her brother Frank Moses. Helen entered into eternal rest on August 15, 2011.

Helen received her early childhood education in the Lee County Public School System and graduated from Auburndale Senior High School in Auburndale, Florida. She later moved to Richmond, VA., where she met and married the "love of her life", Leroy Elder. From this union three children were born, Lee A., Angela D., and Antron S. Elder.

Helen was a long time member of Lawson Grove Baptist Church and later joined Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Church. At Sixth Mount Zion she enjoyed serving the homeless with the Friday Feeding Ministry.

Helen had a "heart of gold" which made her a magnet to whom ever crossed her path but she was also a no-nonsense type of person whom was candid with her comments. Her family and friends knew that if they wanted to know the truth, simply call on Helen! In her leisure time, she enjoyed taking trips to Charlestown, WV; Atlantic City, and Las Vegas.

Helen leaves to cherish her memory, a devoted husband of forty-two years, Leroy Elder; three loving children, Angela Derricott (Curtis), Lee and Antron Elder; two precious grandchildren, Anastasia Elder and Knewlyn Forbes-Elder; devoted brother, Solomon Moses, Jr.; and four sisters, Mary Lou Johnson (Willie), Lottie McGill, Willie Mae Moses, and Deacon L. Elaine Wells; one sister-in-law, Gazell Chapelle; a host of devoted nieces and nephews, many other relatives, her church family, and dear friends.

“ *Everyone is just speechless. Words are hard to find. Helen was so fuller life and was looking forward to her retirement when I talk to her at Westminster, while I was visiting. Since I left our workplace 4 years ago. Always talking about her family and Leroy cooking dinner for her after coming home from work. They made a wonderful couple. At Ruby`s fuctions, we, my husband Ricky and I always enjoyed they`re company. Leroy our hearts and prayers are with you and your family. We are so very sorry. God be with you throu this journey. “ I would like to express my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May the God of Peace, Jehovah, help to ease your grief and always be beside you as you continue on through life.

Hoping it helps to know that others care and share your loss.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

With Deepest Sympathy
