

Helen Elizabeth Clash

December 25, 1927 - May 16, 2006

HELEN ELIZABETH CLASH was born to Charles and Ruth Cooper on December 25, 1927, in Baltimore, Maryland. She quietly departed this life on Tuesday, May 16, 2006. Helen was joined in holy matrimony with John Sterling Clash. From this union two sons were born Mark and Victor. Helen was a dedicated devoted wife and mother. She will be long remembered for her loving kindness and love for all children. Helen had numerous friends. She enjoyed entertaining family and friends. She had sincere compassion to help others. A loving spirit, she will be sorely missed. Helen leaves to cherish her memory: the light of her life, loving husband John S. Clash, a loving son, Victor Clash; grandsons, Nicholas and Matthew Clash, two daughters-in-law, Jeanette and Loretta; a host of devoted nieces and nephews, 10 great nephews, 7 great nieces and many friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family my deepest condolences. The bible has words of comfort. At 1Corinthians 15:26 it states,"As the last enemy, death is to brought to nothing'. God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. I hope this scripture is of comfort to the family doing this time.###imported-begin###Albert Washington###imported-end###

“ To the Family of Mrs. Clash, Please accept my condolences for your loss. Although she lived a long and full life, Almighty God promises even more. Please notice Job chapter 33, verse 25-(Easy to Read Version)"Then that person's body will become young and strong again. That person will be the same as when he was young." The Bible teaches this marvelous prospect for many who have fallen into death. As Acts 24:15 assures us- "There is going to be a resurrection." Yes, God will use his son Jesus Christ to bring our loved ones back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and hope as you think deeply on these Bible promises.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###

“ To the family of Helen Elizabeth Clash I am truly sorry for your loss. Death is an unnatural part of life and brings great sorrow with it. We long for our loves one to continue with us forever and that's natural. The Bible can bring us hope and comfort in this time of need. At Isaiah 25:8 Jehovah himself makes this promise to all mankind, "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth for Jehovah himself has spoken it." Just imagine our enemy death gone forever. At Revelation 21:3,4 the tears we have now of sadness will turn to tears of joy when Jehovah God and Jesus Christ fulfill there promises. (John 5:28,29) Please except my condolences for your loss. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##
