

Helen Jordan Fleming

June 9, 1949 - January 19, 2022

Legacy of Love

Helen Jordan Fleming was born on June 9, 1949, in Atlanta, Georgia to the late Willie Edward Jordan and Helen Beasley Jordan. She was preceded in death by her sister, Beverly Ann Jordan; and nephew, Tracey J. Jordan.

Helen received her formal education at Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia. She furthered her education at Smithdeal-Massey Business College.

Helen accepted Christ as her Savior on May 4, 1969, at the age of 19, and was united with Providence Baptist Church. There she served as an usher, choir member and served on the kitchen and nursery ministries.

She retired from the Commonwealth of Virginia as a Program Support Technician in June 2018.

In her leisure, she enjoyed walking her beloved toy poodle “Lola”. She took Lola everywhere including shopping another one of her favorite pastimes. Helen was a wonderful loving mother and grandmother. She doted on her four grandsons and was happiest when her family and friends surrounded her. She was a compassionate spirit whose passion was caring for others. Helen was a member of the following organizations: Nannie Jones Perkins Chapter #161 Order of the Eastern Star, Richmond Assembly #22 Order of The Golden Circle-PHA, the Red Hat Society/Virginia Crowns Chapter and the American Business Women's Association Virginia Cavalier Chapter.

In March 2019, Helen moved to Maryland and transferred her memberships to the Zorah Chapter #36 Order of the Eastern Star and the Frederick Valley Assembly #270 Order of The Golden Circle-PHA. The following year in February 2020, she started the Red Hat Society Glamour Divas Chapter as the chapter's queen. In December 2021, Helen transferred her church membership to the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Rockville, Maryland, where she was waiting patiently to join the choir because of her love for music.

She leaves to cherish her memory and carry on her legacy to three children, Michelle D. Jordan, Shontell F. Wright (Robert), and James W. Fleming, Jr. (Lisa); siblings, Liki Bey, Calvin Jordan (Marion), Ernest Jordan and Mamie Jordan; grandchildren, Larry Brown, Kalen Wright, James W. Fleming III and Jayden Fleming; former spouse, James Fleming, Sr. (Carletta); god-grandchild, Morgan McRae; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends, and dear neighbors.

“ This picture is how I remember who she was. My grandmother M. Campbell) use to fix her hair. Her aunt and uncle lived next door to Mary. They were the nicest people you could give met. Ms Fleming and I worked together at Bon Air. The year before she retired we became close friends She would always tell me "Ms Penalvel you are crazy".

The Ogletree Family sends condolences to Helen's children grand Children and siblings. Helen was a true friend whom you could always depend on. She was not only loved by me but by my sons as well. Prior to her retirement and move to Maryland we worked together for the Henrico county Electoral board during the elections. She really loved life and lived it to the fullest. She will surely be missed especially her smile. To her eldest grandson may your memories of your time spent with her help to comfort you.
