

Helen G. Epps

May 2, 1928 - October 24, 2001

I'm free, no longer bond; no more change holding me down: My soul is resting, it is a blessing." Praise the Lord I'm free". After a brief illness, Helen Epps left her earthly home to be with the Lord. She departed her life on Wednesday, October 22, 2001 at home. She was the 5th oldest child of fourteen children born to the late Robert and Lillian Pearl McFadden. She was educated in Clarendon County Public Schools. At an early age, she joined Howard Chapel AME Church. There she was spiritually convicted and gave her life to Christ. She served faithfully as a choir member and on the Missionary Board until she moved to Maryland in 1966. After moving to Maryland she continued to serve the Lord. She received membership at New St. Mark's Baptists Church, where she attended until her illness hindered her from doing so. She joined in holy matrimony, the late Moses Fleming. From this union eight children were born. Three preceded her in death, Myrtle Fleming, Frank Leroy Fleming, and Gertrude Fleming. In 1972 she married Robert Epps. Helen (Granny) was a friendly, lively and outgoing person. She touched many lives. She loved people, singing and talking, but most of all she loved GOD. The family called her granny because she kept everyone straight, especially her sisters, brothers and children. She was a wise instructor. Her employment history included Ms. Anna Fae Joffe where she worked for many years. Not only was Ms. Joffe her employer, but she was a dear friend. Helen left to cherish her memories; her husband, Robert Epps, five children; Bessie Epps, Norma Fleming, Delores Fleming, Wilbur Fleming, and Moses Fleming,

Jr.; two devoted granddaughters; Anjanette Booker and Tonya (Ledon), Grace Merritte (Williams), Roosevelt Mc Fadden (Dorothea) of Baltimore, Maryland, Ronell Kennedy (Downing) of Neptune, New Jersey, Odessie Scott, Mildred McCray (Harry), Ruthie Stanley, Robert Mc Fadden (Mattie), and Richard Epps:
