HELEN CLARICE INEZ DUNHAM was born July 3, 1930 in Greensboro, North Carolina to Crockett Dunham and Odessa Brice. Helen's soul departed this earthly world on November 26, 2018 at her new residence in Maryland.

Helen and family moved to Cincinnati, OH. when she was very young. She attended Elementary School there until the family moved to Johnstown, PA. where she continued her education and ultimately graduated from Johnstown High School in 1948. Subsequent to her graduation, she returned briefly to her place of birth to be with family. Eventually, Helen settled in Pittsburgh, PA. and enlisted into the Army to serve her Country. Once inducted, she served nearly 4 years as a nurse while stationed at Fort Hood during Korean Conflict. After being Honorably Discharged from the Army, Helen moved back to Pittsburgh, PA. to embark upon new career; the field of Social Work. She worked for the Department of Social Services until she retirement. She met and married Alphonso B. Hudley in 1969; they were married for 27 years. She later became a devoted member of the Calvary Baptist Church where she taught for years the Primary's Sunday School Class. Helen made her last move to Maryland in 2018 to be with family.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and 2 sisters, Daisy Gooden and Marguerite Pickens. She is survived by 2 sons, Guy Jones "Butchie" and Alphonso Hudley "Phonso". She leaves to cherish her memory

6 grandchildren: Jordan Henry-Jones, Arian Buffaloe, Cole Henry-Jones, Alana Hudley, Alex Long-Hudley, and Allison Long-Hudley, daughter-in-law, Peggy Long-Hudley, 2 nephews: James "JR." Rearden and Reynolds Gooden, 3 nieces: Velma Rearden, Faye Rearden, and Pat Gooden, and a host of cousins and friends.

Helen was a God-fearing, beautiful woman with a gentle and loving spirit. She enjoyed reading her Bible daily and watching her Soaps. Helen could be soft spoken and seen to shed a tear in a minute listening to gospel favorites. But if you ruffled her feathers or bothered her children, you better look out-she would give you a piece of her mind or her fist. Helen loved being with family and visiting those out of state. She was the same with everyone and it didn't matter the group or the click. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ To the Family,

At a time like this, reflection on the promises of Almighty God is very comforting. Like the promise at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever. May these thoughts encourage you during your time of bereavement. Our condolences to you and your family.
