

Helen J. Boyd

December 22, 1940 - August 31, 2009

HELEN JEAN BOYD was born on December 22, 1940 to the late Edward and Georgia Gibson, and was called home after a short illness on August 31, 2009. Affectionately known as "Jean" to all, she was the youngest of five children and attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a lifelong member of Bibleway Missionary Baptist Church. She later married the late Ellsworth Boyd. She worked for many years at Maryland General Hospital and later retired from Stella Maris Hospital. Jean loved to sing, play the piano and cook for her family. Jean was the backbone of the family and will be truly missed. She leaves to mourn: two children, Frances Bean and Larry Gibson; brother, Robert Gibson; sister, Dorothy White; special niece, Emmaline Distance; honorary daughter, Dana Bankins; five grandchildren, Melvin and Tyra Bean, Louri, Melissa and Andrew Gibson; four honorary grandchildren, Dontaine, Charles, DaCiaro Carroll and Barry Bankins; four great-grandchildren, Melvin IV, Meleia, Hikeem and Adasia; a host of other of relatives and friends including special friends, Daryl and Uncle Zeke.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ *Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the wonderful promises found in the Bible. And may you draw even closer to our heavenly father Jehovah God and his loving son Jesus Christ.
