“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am sorry about the loss of Helen. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it. But not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says that it is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But that was not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Goodwin's ! May I send my fellow feeling to you all. Dr. Helen had a wonderfull 95 years of living . We all know the feeling of lossing some one in death and long for better times when no one will ever die,Isa 25:8 . We can have hope from our heavenly father as Rev.21:3-5 says "ALL THINGS WILL BE MADE NEW". I am looking forward to that happening. May all the many accomplishments and cherished times spents with Dr. Helen in your recent circle of life being broken help to support you all.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. The sorrow of death touches our lives like no onter event, and it"s something that no family should have to endure. Soon Jehovah God promises that he will do away with this enemy foever, and restore life back to those who have died. 1st Cor 15:26, and John 5:28,29. Please read these scriptures for comfort. May the love of Jehovah God and his son, Jesus Christ, be with you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
