

Helen J. Kane

August 24, 1925 - May 30, 2006

HELEN J. KANE, daughter of the late Joseph and Ella Mae Hutchins, was born on August 24, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, May 30, 2006 after a lengthy illness. God sent His angel to 2018 E. Baltimore Street with a message to her, "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a devoted wife and housewife who dedicated her life to nurturing her children, grandchildren and others. Everyone knew that if there was nowhere else to go you could always go to Momma's house where the door would be unlocked. During her time of travels in 1982 she became a member of the New Refuge Deliverance Holiness Church under the leadership of Archbishop Naomi C. Durant. She later served as an active member of the N.C. Durant Gospel Choir. Mother Kane loved her church and would assist in any way she could. She also became known as a mother to the youth and young adults. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted and loving husband, Charles W. Kane Sr. whom she was married to for sixty years and also who was there by her side to care for her until the day of her death. Out of this union came twelve children: Arnetta Gibson, Johnny Hutchins, Charles W. Kane Jr., Reginald Kane, Juanita Kane-Ross, Rita Loney, Michael Kane, Sharon Stewart, Sylvia Glover, Andre Kane and Shelly Kane; adopted daughter, Michelle Deans. She was preceded in death by one son, Algie Kane; one sister and two brothers. She also leaves to mourn: four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, six sons-in-law, four daughters-in-law, twenty-five grandchildren, forty-three great-grandchildren; devoted friends, Mrs. Betty Glover, Mrs. Edna Stewart, Mrs. Arcelia Royster; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I'm sorry that your family loss Helen to death. I know that this must have been a time of stress for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort. Psalm 90:10..says...that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the bebinning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32. Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die one for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adams.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ To the Kane's May the peace be with you all. When we lose a very dear loved one in death it is deeply distasteful to all of us. Mrs. Helen had a blessed life and happy life. All of her 12 children and husband and family and friends. That is a very good reason to live, however living in these last days Death is unfortunately something we all may have to deal til the time when our heavenly father bring an end to it. The greatest news ever told. The bible tell you all that comfort can be found in our creator of all things as the 1 Cor 1:3 says . I hope peace and happy thoughts of Mrs. Helen keep precious memories alive. My condolences. Lillia Crosby. 7.18.07.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ to the family of mrs. kane i would like to give my deep sympathy. as i have also lost loved ones in death, including my one year old grandson fairly recently. it was not Jehovah's intention in the beginning for mankind to suffer such great pain as that of losing a dear loved one to death. so, when we learn that our obedience now can bring us the joyous blessing of being there to see our dear loved ones then, it should make us want to learn and do all that God requires of us. please read the encouraging scriptures from your Bible. Revelation 21:3,4, Psalms 37:9-11,29, John 5:28,29, Proverbs 3:5,6. after reading these verses please e-mail me at kic2@verizon.net so that we can discuss these things further.##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
