

Helen E. Kelly

February 4, 1917 - September 20, 2011

Helen Elizabeth Cagle Kelly was born on February 14, 1917, in Goldsboro, North Carolina, to the late James Garfield and Mary Cagle. She departed this life on September 20, 2011. Helen was one of four children. Her three siblings preceded her in death.

Helen received her education at Dillard High School. After graduating, she married the late Willie James Young. After their divorce, she then later married the late Leonard Donald Kelly.

Helen worked various jobs. She spent two years in New York, but became tired of the "Big City" and returned to Baltimore. She worked as a companion in Roland Park, but soon started to work at Trailways Bus Station, where she retired after twenty-seven years.

At an early age, Helen was baptized at St. Stevens Baptist Church In Goldsboro, North Carolina and then later became a member of Cornerstone Church of Christ on Park Heights Avenue here in Baltimore, Maryland. Helen enjoyed going out, traveling, hair, clothes, shoes, and loved being surrounded by pretty things.

She leaves to cherish her memory: twelve cousins, Ethel Clark of Virginia, Dan Lossinea, Tracee Brown, Robert Hicks, Carlton Hicks and Robin Hicks of

and Wilhemena and Scoop Burris.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I wanted to give your family some comfort. I'm so sorry for your loss!! Do you know that there is hope for your dead loved one? Well, the Bible makes a promise: “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” The Bible also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.”—Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. Can this be possible you may ask? Yes, Almighty God Jehovah has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. His Son, Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. If you are interested in learning more, any one of Jehovah's Witnesses will be happy to help you with a free home Bible study. Again I'm so sorry for your loss!!
