“ I extend my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Glover. One day there will be no more pain, no more sorrow, or dying. This indeed was not God's purpose for us. He desires life for all of his children here on earth. When we pray the part of the Lord's prayer which says, "Thy kindgdom come, thy will be done on earth just as it is in heaven, we are praying that peaceful conditions will one day prevail on the earth. Because when God's will is done; then people will be able to live eternally in peace and security. Soon that promise will be fulfilled. because Micah 4,4 says of that time: "Each one will sit under his vine and under his fig tree, with noone to make them tremble."One day there will be no more violence, sickness, or death, because God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more" Even the dead will experience thes blessings, because Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a ressurection back to life for the righteous ones. Please find comfort in God's word, and his wonderful promises of eternal life.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
