“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Today we're sadden to hear of the lost of Helen Marie Bishop. It is always difficult to lose a love one, especially one who brings a truly special meaning to the phrase "the love of our lives". Although we might not fully understand God's reasoning for calling her home at this time. We pray however, He will always kindle your spirits reminding you of her love, compassion, and the many blessings you have received while she was apart of your lives. May her spirit live on in each of your hearts.##imported-begin##Calvin L. James##imported-end##
