“ I would like to express my condolences to the Overton family. The loss of a loved one can be painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8, and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ No words are adequate when God calls home one of His loved ones, but, we send our deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother ("Miss Helen"). As members of the family and being next door most of the time, we knew the independent spirit that was "Miss Helen". As her body grew more frail and as she reached a point where she could not do the things she use to do, we believe that she communed with God and asked Him to bring her home. Take comfort in knowing that she is at peace, she is resting, she is whole again and she is with God.
