

Helen R. Jennings

June 20, 1917 - February 15, 2005

Helen Rebecca Jennings was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 20, 1917 to the late Rachel and Walter Johnson. She departed this life on February 15, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She accepted Christ at an early age and continued to serve Him until He called her to an eternal rest. She was self employed for over thirty years. In her later years she did volunteer work at Harford Gardens Nursing Home until her health no longer permitted it. Helen was the devoted mother of five children - four daughters and a son. One daughter, Jean and her only son Kenneth preceded her in death. Her passions in life were doing hair, playing cards, sewing, knitting and caring for children. If you remember anything about her, remember her as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend. She was well known by all her neighbors. She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Delores Ward, Charlotte Lee and Patricia Gordon (a very, devoted daughter who cared for her until her death); sister, Ruth Lee; nine grandchildren, a host of great- and great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ Even though you were my great grandmother it always felt like you was my grandmother instead. You always made room for us when we had know where else to go. Even when you was living in your one bedroom room apartment you never hesitate to let us in. My mother didnt see you as her grandmother she throught of you as a mother she wished she had and after you passed away it broke her heart. To her it felt as if she lost her mother. You was always kind, had a good heart. caring and always willing to help anyone in need. For that i will forever be greatfull that you was apart of my life for as long as you were. Heaven needed a angel so he called upon you. And when God knocked you answered. Love always and forever.

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. The scripture at Isaiah 26:19 says “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]. May you find comfort in this scripture knowing that you have the hope of seeing your dead loved one again.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
