

Helen Reed

May 25, 1945 - November 10, 2017

HELEN ODESSA REED, was born on May 29, 1945 to the late Mr. William Frances and Mrs. Hellen Lee Reed.

She received the Lord in her life and was baptized in the late 2000's at the Garden Of Prayer Christain Church, under the leadership of Apostle Dr. Melvin B. Tuggle II and Dr. Brenda M. Tuggle. She was a proud member and wanted everyone she knew to get right with God.

She was called home peacefully on November 10, 2017. She was proceded in death by: her son, Robert Anthony Reed; a nephew that she raised as her own, Eric Jones; and her three best friends; Bernice, Essie, and Mamie.

Helen Reed was a loving mother, aunt, grandmother, sister and devoted friend. She was a fun-loving, kind-hearted person and conversationalist. The doors of her home were always open to anyone in need. She loved to cook and would often feed the neighborhood. During family times she loved to play spades and talk trash to let you know she is the best. We will never forget the love that she spread throughout the family.

She leaves to mourn her passing: five children; Larry Reed, Michael Reed, Amber Reed, Litasha Reed and Mark Reed; a very special great-niece, Monica Jones; special great-nephew, Skyy Carroll, that she also raised as her own; two sisters; Mae Frances Jones and Dianne Brooks; brother; John Douglas Reed; sister-in-law, Antoninette Reed; daughter-in-law, Tia Reed; Fifteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; the one and only, her side kick, Makayla Watson; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, family and friends.

“ To the Reed family,

Losing a loved one is never easy and sometimes you can feel like no one understands your pain. May you find comfort in knowing that God shares in your pain and promises that you will be able to see your loved ones again (Isaiah 63:9 & Isaiah 26:19).
