

Helen Scott

September 20, 1931 - August 15, 2002

Helen Scott, daughter of the late Henry and Irene Driver was born on September 20, 1931. Helen gave her life to Christ at a very early age, while attending St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. Helen was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She met and married Benjamin Scott at a young age. Out of this union thirteen children were born. Helen was a devoted housewife and mother for over fifty years. Helen as everyone knew her, was fortunate during her illness, her daughters were her nursemaids, especially Ida. (BKA Cathy). Helen was a courageous and devoted mother who loved her children and grandchildren. She adored family gatherings. Her home and heart was open to people of all kind. She had a great passion for life. Helen never complained about her illness placing it in God's unchanging hands. She will be greatly missed. Helen leaves to mourn (her husband preceded her in death on January 26, 2002), eight daughters, Brenda, Carolyn Gwendolyn, Virginia, Ida, Wanda, Teresa, and Lakeina; five sons, Benjamin Jr., Ghais, Wayne, Anthony, and James; two sisters, Lillian Washington and Barbara McCoy; one brother, Jeremiah Driver; forty-six grandchildren two grandsons preceded her death, nineteen great grandchildren, one goddaughter, Darlene Logan; four brothers-in-law (three preceded her in death); five sisters-in-law. A host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Her best friends were Mrs. Dot, Mrs. Pee Wee, and Mrs. Dora Mae along with Shirley Douglass. We loved you from the day you gave birth to us, From the bottom of our hearts to the tops of our souls You will always be remembered Lovingly submitted, Your

Children
