

Helen May Wallace

May 3, 1934 - August 3, 2012

HELEN M. WALLACE, daughter of the late George and Martha Lee Holton, was born on May 3, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 3, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Helen was educated in the Baltimore City School System, where she met the love of her life, the late Raymond E. Wallace, Jr. the two of them were married in the early 1950's and from this union seven wonderful kids were born.

Helen, who was known to everyone as "Mama," was a true Baltimorean. In her early years you could find her in the kitchen preparing one of her many favorite dishes. Helen loved dancing and listening to her oldies. She was a great inspiration to all her family. You could talk to Helen about any problem you may have. She loved talking about the old times and loved riding through her old neighborhood. Helen would do anything for anyone and was loved by everyone. She was a member of First Charity Baptist Church, where she was a member of the "Willing Workers." She was also a member of the Community Action of Baltimore City, where she enjoyed planning trips, parties and other activities for the community. You could always find Helen at a good Gospel Show. Helen was loved by everyone who knew her and will truly be missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Brenda Jacobs, Delia Wallace, Michele Horne and Karen Sims; three sons-in-law, Perry, Andrew and Henry; two sons, Raymond Wallace and Clyde Wallace: two daughters-in-law, Norma and Patricia; sister, Agnes Gross; Nineteen grandkids, fifty-six great-grandkids, four great great-grandkids; and a host of other relatives and friends, that meant the world to her.

I am sorry for your loss. Death is something that pains each and everyone of us. If we as humans feel the pains of death, we can imagine how it pains God. That's why in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 he promises that very soon he's going to swallow up death forever. At Revelation 21:4 he says he will wipe out all tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor our cries. I hope this brings comfort to you and your family.

With deepest Sympathy. You are in our prayers. 2Corinthians 5:1 'our bodies are like tents that we live in here on earth. But when these tents are destroyed, we know that God will give each of us a place to live...'
