

Helene Jones

July 29, 1929 - December 19, 2005

HELENE JONES, daughter of the late Ernest and Rosa Lee Watson, was born July 29, 1929 in Johnston County, North Carolina. She went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Monday, December 19, 2005, after a brief illness. She received a public education in the Johnston County school system of her day. She moved to Baltimore in the 1955 to seek employment. She worked several jobs before being employed by the then University of Maryland Hospital System. She worked in the Environmental Services unit until her retirement in 1985. She married Russell Jones of Durham, North Carolina on March 16, 1977. There was one daughter born to this committed and devoted union: Rosemary Jones. During her illness and frequent hospitalizations and temporary residence in the nursing home setting, Russell always found a way to be at her bedside to comfort her. He always wanted her to be happy. From her childhood to her homegoing Helene always loved the Lord. Helene attended Green Chapel Church in Smithfield, North Carolina as a child. She joined the Philadelphia Missionary Baptist Church, and was a faithful member until her health prevented her from attending regularly. She was on the Usher Board. She was a loving and faithful wife, mother, mother-in-law, sister and friend. One cannot say enough about her devotion to all that she loved. She is survived by: her husband, Russell Jones; son, Sesier J. Watson; and daughter, Rosemary Jones all of Baltimore; a sole surviving sister, Thelma Hunter of Smithfield, N.C.; three brothers, Evon Watson and Pat Sanders of Smithfield, N.C. and Ernest Watson (Kay) of Fall River, Mass.; two sisters-in-law, Lillie Watson and Mary Stewart of Baltimore, Md.; four grandchildren, Tracey, Omar, Shemeka and Brannia; three great-grandchildren, Tracey, Jr., Yah'seom and (O'mar's baby). She is also survived by numerous nephews, nieces, cousins and many friends. Rosa Lee Watson-Williams, Mattie Lee Watson-Sanders, Leroy Watson, Edward Watson, and Herman Watson all preceded her in death.

“ I send my condolences to the family and friends of Helene. There is also a real hope that you can take confidence in from the Bible. John 5:28,29 mentions that "those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection". May you be comforted by this hope laid out for us in the Bible.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ *To the family of Ms. Jones, Please accept my sincere sympathy. As you find comfort from your precious memories may you also find strength from the source of true comfort, "The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##G. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
