

Henrietta Mitchell

January 7, 1925 - January 5, 2010

HENRIETTA MITCHELL, daughter of the late John Wilson and Matilda Leach, was born in Malvern, Arkansas, January 7, 1925. She departed this life on January 5, 2010. Henrietta received her education in the Arkansas school system from which she received her high school diploma. Upon completion of High School, she met and eventually married Edmund Mitchell. A few years after marrying, they moved to Boston, Massachusetts in search of a better life. Out of this union four children were born, Anna, Lois, Avon and James. Henrietta was a strong, but loving mother and was always there to give her children needed guidance and advice. Although Henrietta had to work two jobs to maintain the household, she reinforced the importance of education by ensuring that we read the newspaper and a variety of books. Henrietta was a great cook. Her peach cobbler and german chocolate cake were legendary. You definitely had to have your wits about you when talking to Henrietta, because she wouldn't let you get away with anything. She would, very nicely, put you in your place. She leaves to mourn: her daughters, Anna Staunton and Lois Hill White; one son, Avon Mitchell (pre-deceased by son, James Mitchell); one brother, Joseph Ashby; seven grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, daughter-in-law, son-in-law and a host of other relatives and very dedicated friends.

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and stength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my fellow feeling to you all, the family and friends. Ms. Henrietta live for a long time as the bible say at Ps. 90:10," Some person will live to be 70 and other 80 because of speical mightiness". Just think what life will be like in the future when dying will be a thing of the past, Gone , forever, Isa.25:8. I am looking forward and I know your are too,no more old age, pain, sorrow tears, etc. My your future days be filled with the many accomplishments of joy Ms. Henrietta had and speical and cherish time shared with Ms. Henrietta.I hope these words will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
