

Henrietta Sumler

May 28, 1926 - January 17, 2014

Henrietta "Honey" Sumler is the daughter of Effie and Simon Clark and was born in Henrico County, Virginia on May 28, 1926. She passed away peacefully from this life the morning of January 17, 2014. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family throughout her life, who also served as devoted caregivers in her last days. Her life was given to Christ at an early age and she remained a faithful member of Bethlehem Baptist Church for many years. She was educated in Richmond Public Schools and served over 20 years at John Marshall Hotel where she retired as a Supervisor. Her radiant beauty was always far more than skin deep and she will forever be treasured for her gifts of genuine love, integrity, tender kindness, wisdom, strong work ethic and dedication to family.

Henrietta is survived by four daughters; Joyce Brown (Wilbert), Caroline Scott (William), Antoinette Byrdsong (James) and Ramona Silver (Edward); eleven grandchildren; Phyllis Brown, Diane Ross (Alvin), James Lundy, Jr. Timothy Lundy, Kanika Lundy, Alwakco Sumler, Letitia Brown, Latonya Brown, Lavonya Parker, Alphonso Sumler and Latoya Sumler; twenty four great grandchildren, and eight great-great grandchildren. She also leaves to cherish her memory a loving sister, Hattie Eaton, nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Sweet Grandma,

Oh so hard to believe even today that you went on to Glory to be with our Father JESUS 7 years ago. My heart still aches immensely for you, I cry still for you, and I still long for one of your special embraces. As I meditate and remember all the precious time spent with you, I am brought again and again to the realization of just the true woman you were. So Beautiful, so Tender yet a Powerhouse of Strength in the face of adversity, a Forgiver of wicked evildoers deserving of death, a Trailblazer so full of Kindness, Wisdom, Integrity, Honesty, and Love beyond measure. I can only hope in this life to be half the woman you were Grandma.

My, my, my ..... just as the Lord's mercy endureth forever. so shall I never forget you nor the blood, sweat, and tears you poured into our family. We were your crowning jewel and You Are Our Precious Rose For All Eternity. I LOVE YOU GRANDMA !!!

“❤️ A Tribute to my Grandma ❤️

I woke up this morning really missing my grandmother as always. She's been gone for six years now. As I lived with her until I was 12 years old she was more like a second mother to me and I called her "Honey" because she was very sweet in her own way. I miss the sound of her voice so much, She used to call me and ask me what I was eating for dinner and no matter what I said she would always say that sounds delicious. I miss our cuddles ❤️ on the sofa by the window that blinds were always closed. She was a very private woman. She was ALWAYS glad to see me saying "Oh Phyl is that you? " while I waited patiently for her to open the front door, because she had to find the door knob that had been broken off for every since I can remember that never got fixed since I was a little girl😭. I miss our talks at her kitchen table, I could share anything with her and she would never ever tell anything that was just between the two of us. We watched the soap operas together, she especially loved Victor Newman on Y&R. 😍 When I was little I was her wing man(girl) Nobody knew that but she and I 😊. I miss going to the cemetery watching her tend the graves of my brother Will and her son Raymond and looking for other loved ones that had passed on. That was her thing she never forgot those that went on before. I miss sitting on the front porch talking and running from the Bumblebees that made the honeysuckle bush in the front yard near the porch their home every summer. I miss hanging clothes on the clothes line in the backyard with her because she never had a dryer, things we take for granted these days. I miss her delicious baked chicken that no one could cook like her. I miss my grandma more and more as time goes by"Honey" is what I and everyone else called her because she was very sweet in her own way. I was truly blessed to have her longer than most have their grandmas, we had a special bond and even death could not take it away. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Grandma, as I gaze at your beautiful face, I long for you and miss you oh so terribly. Living without you is undoubtedly the hardest thing I've ever endured. My, how I wish I could kiss you one more time and tell you how very much I love you.

Today on the anniversary of your death, I want to say thank you for being so good to me, for all that you poured into me and for being the "rock" of our family. You taught us to serve our Lord Jesus Christ, to be kind, to be honest, to forgive demonic takers of worldly possessions and to always extend our genuine help without regard for self-gain. Ah, for you knew Grandma that heaven was the ultimate reward and allowed Jesus to work through you as our example of a true woman.

All that I am and all that we are is because of Jesus and you. Your hand and your love are upon me as well as our family and never shall the kind, tender, thoughtful spirit you were be forgotten. So for now, while Jesus manages the agonizing, gaping hole that remains lodged in my heart from your departure, I go on knowing that you are happier than ever walking streets of gold which no man prepared and that I have the promise of seeing your beautiful face again. Glory, Alleluia! Thank you Lord for coming in the flesh to save us from our sins and for my Sweet Grandma Honey. I'll always love you forever!

“ It's been four years since you closed your eyes for last time to this world as you opened your new eyes in Heaven to spend eternity with Jesus our Savior. I cannot tell you how much I miss you. I miss your voice, I miss you smile, I miss everything that made you uniquely who you were.

Life goes on and memories of you live in my heart. I am grandmother now and I now understand how much you loved me and the sacrifices you made for your grandchildren.

I remember how on cold winter mornings you would get up to make sure we woke up to a warm house. How you always kissed me goodbye or hello. I remember how stubborn you were and also how caring you could be, always ready to help when there was a need. I keep these memories in my heart and then I know you are always with me in spirit if not in this present world. Love is eternal and in eternity we will see one another some sweet day. Love Phyl.

I often think about the sacrifices you made, you always gave us your best no matter what the cost. I saw how you put on the mind of Christ and forgave even when there was just cause to fight. My, how JESUS worked through you to teach us these and so many more truths of living for him. And now that my beloved Sir Arthur has gone home with you and our Gracious Lord above, I realize the greatest gift of all to my soul was LOVE. Thank you FATHER and Thank you GRANDMA. Alleluia!*

“ Grandma,

I miss you so very much and not having you here has been pretty hard at times. I often see you in my dreams where we just smile at each other. I would often call you on my way to work and say "Hey old Bag-A Bones" and you would say to me "Hey Tonya Brown Young-Bones". We would just laugh ourselves silly on the phone. That was our joking names we had for each other. Oh how I miss your smile and laugh. You encouraged me to go to work, be kind to others, help others, work hard and save for a rainy day but I tell you nothing has been harder for me than excepting the fact that you are no longer here with us. I am so thankful and great-full that god allowed me to be a part of your life and you a part of mine and that he blessed you to have a beautiful daughter which became my mother (Antoinette Byrdsong). My mother lovingly cared for you in her home without ever having a murmur or complaint and never looking for recognition from others until the day you departed this life to live your new life with The Lord Jesus Christ. She never expected anything in return nor did she ever bring up the deeds she did for you. It came straight from her heart. Wow! You raised an awesome daughter and I am proud to call her my mother just like I am proud to call you my grandma. Job well done Grandma! You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, we know you are always by our side. I miss you "Bag-A-Bones" and I WILL LOVE YOU FOREVER AND EVER !!!

I remember how we frequently drove to visit people, took clothes to the shelter and fed neighborhood animals in need. My oh my! *My very first memories are of you. You were such an important person in my life. Your wisdom and strength encouraged me when I had no one else to turn to in this life. You gave me your affection freely and unconditionally. You required the best of me, and encouraged me to be the best that I could be. I will always remember our long talks. I think you opened up to me about yourself, because we were alike in certain ways and we understood each other because of that. You gave me strength and courage to become the woman that I am today and I will always be grateful. Now your journey here on Earth has ended and you have been called by our Father to embark on another journey. I am looking forward to seeing you again some sweet morning on those shores of Glory where everyday will be Sunday and death will be no more. Even Jesus grieved when he lost Lazarus, his friend. He understood personally how death affects humans, and by bringing Lazarus back to life, Jesus demonstrated God's plan for many who have died--life again here on a paradise earth under God's Kingdom.

I look forward to meeting Henrietta and her family here on earth when God's government gives her a chance at living forever on a beautiful cleansed earth with no sickness or pain. (Revelation 21: 3, 4)

You gave me your affection freely and unconditionally. You required the best of me, and encouraged me to be the best that I could be. I will always remember our long talks. I think you opened up to me about yourself, because we were alike in certain ways and we understood each other because of that. You gave me strength and courage to become the woman that I am today and I will always be grateful. Now your journey here on Earth has ended and you have been called by our Father to embark on another journey. I am looking forward to seeing you again some sweet morning on those shores of Glory where everyday will be Sunday and death will be no more. You are gone from this life, however you will NEVER be forgotten! It was an honor and privilege to be your oldest grandchild and I will always LOVE YOU.*
