

Henry C. Allison, Jr.

September 18, 1971 - July 1, 2022

Henry Clay Allison Jr. (Popcorn), was born on September 18, 1971 to the late Henry Clay Allison Sr. (father) and Juanita Booker (Mother) of Baltimore, he departed this life on July 1, 2022.

Popcorn as he was known by all was introduced to the Lord at an early age at Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Mamie Cooley. He graduated from Patterson Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Over the years Popcorn had numerous jobs, however his most memorable job was CMG LLC. Popcorn loved his job so much he would continue going even during his weakest moments. Popcorn was committed to his career and was acknowledged for his hard work and dedication. He made friends and earned the respect of so many of his peers.

Popcorn was known for his witty personality and was loved by all. He loved to talk trash and would crack jokes on just about everyone. To know Popcorn is to have laughed with or to have shared a kind, or sarcastic word with him. After a long day at work, you could find him sipping on a can of "Bud Ice" hence the nick name "BUD", given to him by his wife Lywanda. Popcorn loved watching Basketball and Baltimore Ravens; his favorite basketball player is LeBron James whom he named his son after. Popcorn loved listening to his favorite rapper Jay-Z, and you could even catch him dancing and singing to his favorite singer Michael Jackson Pretty Young Thing. He was a master of reverse Psychology and would use it often on his family, friends, and foes. Popcorn met Lywanda in 1988, and they later married February 2008 making their home in Baltimore, Maryland. Deeply in love and inseparable they looked forward to a long and happy life together.

He was preceded in death by his son Henry Clay Allison III; brother Ronnell Allison; Aunt's Carrie, Donna, Shirley and Sylvia.

His joyous memory will forever be Cherished by his wife: Lywanda Allison grandchildren, Semaje, Ronnie and Skyler; mother-in-law Carolyn Ferebee; father in-law, Steven Fitzgerald and Ira Fitzgerald; loving grandmother, Evelyn Swann, aunts; Linda (husband James), Virginia and Christine (husband Greg); uncles Walter, Johnny and Mack; best friend Milton Butler and a host of nieces, nephews cousins family and friends.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tell us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.
