

Henry Burns

March 6, 1925 - August 25, 2018

HENRY BURNS was born to the late Cecil and Sallie Mae Burns on March 6, 1925 in Washington GA located in Wilkes County. Henry was the third oldest child of eleven siblings, whom all but one has preceded him in death.

Henry was a member of New Salem Baptist Church growing up and he loved the Lord.

Henry moved to Baltimore Maryland in 1966 and he was employed by Charles Engineering for over 40 years, he worked as a carpenter and cement finisher for not remembering his anniversary. They celebrated fifty years of marriage this year.

Henry later joined New Psalmist Baptist Church in the late 80's and he loved the preaching of Bishop Walter Thomas, he would listen to biship every Sunday night on WBAL radio.

Henry was an ambitious person who enjoyed working to support his family, he did painting, cement work, and janitorial cleaning for Fallstaff Medical Building. His greatest passion was grass cutting and landscaping. He started his own-landscaping business in the early seventies and he did it for over 50 years. He was not happy until he was riding on his lawnmowers.

He was a tireless worker and one who told you if he was going to do a job for you, you could count on him being there to do it. He taught all his grandchildren about grass cutting and landscaping and they have taken up the trade on the side as well. He was a role model for his two sons Samuel and Henry and he passed on to them about having good work ethics and enjoying working.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his wife Alice Burns; his two sons, Samuel and Henry; two daughters-in-law, Geraldine and Rosalyn; two granddaughters, Antoinette and Darnice; grandsons, Dexter, Samuel, Jon; brother-in-law, James Mayes; a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
