

Henry Curtis Brown

August 8, 1928 - May 2, 2002

Henry Curtis Brown, son of the late Alex and Virginia Brown, was born on August 8, 1928 in Roberson County, North Carolina. He was called home through the voice of the Lord on May 2, 2002. Henry, also known as “Silver Fox,” received his education in Roberson County, North Carolina. He was employed as a taxi cab driver, then moved on to his own company known as Brown & Sons. Shortly after he took employment with the Long-shoreman Local 1429 Association, from which he later retired. In His early years he was a member of the Panthersford United Presbyterian church, Red springs, North Carolina; before moving to Baltimore. While attending church there he was under the leadership of Dr. J. H. Haywood. He also was an active volunteer and parishioner of Knox Presbyterian Church. Henry was the husband of the late Mary E. Brown. He leaves to mourn: his sons, Kenneth Powell and Demetrius Brown; brothers, Clyde, Thurman, Robert and Charles; one sister, Katie (Jones) Brown; three grandchildren, Kemaith, Kim and Kelly; two great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, a host of friends and other relatives. He will be greatly missed by all.

Tribute Wall

“ Henry Curtis Brown

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM