

Henry Davis Jr.

September 11, 1943 - October 29, 2013

HENRY DAVIS JR., son of the late Mary Lee and Henry Davis Sr., was born on September 11, 1943 in Summerton, South Carolina. On Tuesday, October 30, 2013 he quietly departed this life at Northwest Rehabilitation Center. He received his education in the public schools of South Carolina and Baltimore, Maryland.

Henry was self employed for many years with his moving and hauling business, and his employees adored him, to the point of spending hours with him at the end of a hard day's work. You would have to search high and low to find someone who was as kind and as funny as he was. He never ever stopped kidding, and three people who were at the brunt of his jokes were Rita Pinder and his sisters Queen and Debbie. As soon as he saw them, he would start in. He would give you the shirt off his back or stand in front of a moving car to protect you, if necessary. He was one of a kind, and we are truly going to miss him. He loved fishing, listening to the blues, cooking (and boy, could he cook) and spending time with his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Retha Hamilton Davis; children, Bridget (William) Edwards, Anthony (Catherine) Chapman and Carlos Hartsfield; four grandchildren, Tre, Justin, Jaelyn and Amonee; five sisters, Gertrude (Jerome) White, Mary (Willie) Pearson, Evelyn Davis, Queen Jackson and Deborah Davis; aunts, Estelle Glover and Susie May Brunson of Summerton, South Carolina; and host of nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and -nephews, other relatives and friends.
