“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the wonderful promises found in the Bible. And may you draw closer to our heavenly father Jehovah God and his loving son Jesus Christ. “ My grandfather, whom we affectionately called Boo-Boo, will forever be missed. He was the rock of our family and taught us all that family was most important in life. We did not have much, but we always had each other. I will never forget the last words that I uttered to my grandfather before he passed. Qi-Qi and I went to see him in the hospital one Sunday afternoon and he talked to us about everything from raising children to him getting into mischief when he was younger. He said he knows his granddaughters would always take care of him and he was thankful for us, his children, his wife and all his grand children and great grandchildren. I then said, "We are thankful for you too, Boo-Boo." He then looked at the two of us and gave us the warmest smile as if to say "I done good." I am so thankful and grateful that I was able to let him know that we appreciated him before he left this earth. We all laugh and joke about the "long Boo-Boo talks" we would get whenever we visited him, but I would give anything to hear just one of those talks again. Things will never be the same, but he is in a better place with no more surgery, heartache, pain, suffering and plenty of corned beef sandwiches, cake and ice cream. We love you Boo-Boo and we will all miss you. Lovingly Submitted, Jessica Brewer###imported-begin##Jessica Brewer##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear father and grandfather. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to grips with, because we miss them so very much. Death is our enemy, because it is God's purpose for us to live forever. One day that purpose will be realized, because God never fails to full fill his promises. Isaiah 55:11. He promises to swallow up death forever, and to ressurect the dead ones back to life. Isaiah 55:11, Acts 24:15. Indeed, one day they will hear the voice of his son Jesus, and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. May you be comforted and strengthened by this wonderful promise.
