“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I have experienced the sorrow of losing a loved one to death and I have also experienced the comfort provided by “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). If you “draw close to God he will draw close to you,” (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort as well. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God’s word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Henry Hadley. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation” (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
