

Henry J. Brooks

February 22, 1919 - March 7, 2002

God in His infinite wisdom on March 7, 2002 called his son Henry J. Brooks home. Henry who was the fourth child of the late James Henry and Viola Brooks was born on February 22, 1919. He received his formal education at St. Peter Claver Catholic School and completing his higher education at Douglas High School. After high school, he entered into the United States Army, where he served during World War II. In 1945 he was honorable discharged. While in the service, Henry married Mary Frances Jackson and out of this union came his only son John Henry Brooks, Jr. He later divorced her and on March 26, 1958, he married Mable L. Pinn. Henry started working for the Baltimore Public School system upon his discharge from the service. After a short stay, he became employed by the United States Postal Service. In 1976 after 30 years of service, he retired receiving numerous Letters of Commendations. He was a man who loved life to the fullest. He enjoyed meeting and helping people. He was founding member of the Roamers Social Club. This group traveled extensively seeing the world, where they met numerous people and made friends along the way. He enjoyed conversing on numerous topics and was very knowledgeable individual. Those who came to know him also came to love him. Brooksie Boy the Oldest Young Man in the World will surely be missed by all. Left to cherish his memories are: a loving wife, Mable L. Brooks, one son, John H. Brooks Jr.; one sister, Miriam Wilson; one daughter-in-law, Alfreda Brooks; two great granddaughters, Amara S. Brooks and Taylor Virgil; a host of brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Henry J. Brooks

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ *May God bless you and be with you in your time of sorrow. May He give you strength and hope to meet each new tomorrow. He has said I will never leave thee nor forsake thee... Hebrew13:
5##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##*

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM