

Henry L. Blake

November 3, 1929 - January 17, 2003

Henry Lee Blake, son of the late Daisy and Lee Blake, was born November 3, 1929. He departed this life on January 17, 2003, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of eighteen, he was employed at Domino's Sugar Company, Baltimore Feed Company and Baltimore Nail and Tack Company for over forty years. He retired from work in 1985. He was a member of the Orchard Street United Methodist Church early in life. He was married to the late Adeline Avery, and out of this union six children were born, Daisy Johnson, Al Blake, Charles Blake, Francine Merritt and Rodney Blake (Perry Blake preceded him in death.) He made numerous friends wherever he went and everyone who knew him will sincerely miss him. He was a devoted father with an understanding and caring heart. He leaves to mourn: his five children; one great cousin, Nettie McRae of North Carolina; two nephews, Cecil and Alvin Blake of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of other relatives, devoted family and friends.
