

Henry Lewis Barksdale

August 2, 1941 - July 16, 2002

Henry Lewis Barksdale was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on August 2, 1941. He was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. He was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he was liked by all of his co-workers. Henry loved the outdoors. His hobbies included fishing and hunting. He also enjoyed repairing and driving old cars. He leaves to cherish his memory: four children, Antoinette, Leslie, Aaron and Henry Barksdale, Jr.; his former wife of many years, Joanne Barksdale. His companion of the last six years, Emma Banks will surely miss him. Several grandchildren will wonder, "Where is Grandpop?" Well, the angels have come to take him Home. Mr. Barksdale also leaves three sisters, four brothers and his mother, Lola Barksdale, who is eighty-four years old. His father, William A. Barksdale, is deceased.
