

Henry R. Pearce Jr.

June 24, 1951 - March 30, 2013

HENRY RUSSELL PEARCE, JR. was born on June 24, 1951. He was the loving son of Luvenia and Henry Russell Pearce, Sr. On Saturday, March 30, 2013, he answered God's call to come home to rest. Therefore transitioning from life to LIFE.

"Junebug" or "Bug," as he was affectionately called by those close to him, received his education in the public schools of Richmond, Virginia. He was a Master Barber and a Cook. His greatest passion was singing. We often found him imitating his favorite gospel group, The Volunaires. His main focus in life was to make sure everyone around him was happy and okay. He was so full of life. Bug was very giving and kind-hearted, always looking out for the next person. His love and positive energy will forever last in our hearts.

He was loved by many and truly he will be missed. He now joins his mother, sisters, Cynthia, Genean (Ne-Ne) and Gail at the throne of our Heavenly Father.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Henry Sr.; two sons, Derrick and Corey; daughter, Angie; eight sisters, Alfreda, Jeannie, Rosie, Thelma, Carol, Gwen, Fay and Poochie; brother, Jeffrey; three grandchildren; his devoted friend, Betty Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To Jeannie and Gwen My prayers are with you and your families during such a difficult time. May God comfort your hearts and give you strength in midst of an unfortunate storm. Losing a loved one is never easy and there is nothing that can prepare you for it but one thing I'm sure of is God will give you peace and heal your hearts.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
