

Henry L. Tabron, Sr.

March 1, 1948 - September 7, 2025

Henry Louise Tabron, Sr, son of the late William Henry Tabron and Margaret Floyd Harrison Tabron, was born on March 1, 1948, in Halifax County, North Carolina. Louis as everyone affectionately called him, peacefully transitioned on September 7, 2025, with family by his side.

Louis spent his early years in Littleton, North Carolina, where he also received his education within the Halifax County Public School System. After graduating from McIver High School in Littleton, Louis relocated to Baltimore, Maryland.

After relocating, Louis began working as a security officer. He later became gainfully employed with The Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, where he rendered thirty-five years of service as a tractor trailer driver. Captain Henry as his colleagues called him, trained and assisted several others with obtaining their Commercial Driver's Licenses.

Louis love to dance and have lots of fun. Boy oh Boy, if you were in his company, he always made sure the two of you had fun listening to music. Spending the time with family and friends was a big deal to Louis. Another thing he loved was his favorite football team "The Baltimore Ravens". Just as Louis had a favorite football team, he also had favorite foods, fish, greens and cornbread were his favorite dishes. We also can forget one of his favorite statements "If you don't start now-----. It won't be no -----
