

Henry Franklin Williams

September 11, 1951 - October 18, 2013

Henry was born, September 11, 1951 in Sterling, Va. On October 18, 2013, God in his Devine wisdom sent an angel of mercy to call to eternal rest our loved one, Henry Franklin Williams at home with his family at 2917 Barton Ave.

He attended Loudon County Schools and Hampton City Schools.

Henry's career started with his employment at Wrens Furniture Shop in Richmond where he worked his way up to become the assistant store manager. He also had a career with Embassy Suites Hotel as Head Housekeeping for 15 years. His last career opportunity was with the Virginia Industries for the Blind where he retired.

He fell in love with Elloise Marie Scott in 1976 and they married on August 19, 1978. With this union there was a son (Orlanda J. Shaw) and a daughter (Daryle E. Williams).

Henry adored his family. We will sadly miss him but we realize that God has a better place for him. He has a place in heaven now and is walking with God in a perfect place.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Elloise Marie Scott Williams of 35 years, Lula D. Williams (mother), Wade Williams (father). He leaves to cherish his memories his loving children,Orlanda J. Shaw(son),Daryle E.
