“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Henson. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to you for your loss. SOme months have passed since he died, but we never forget them. Time only dulls the pain a little. One day we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because at that time there will be no more dying; no more pain or crying. Jehovah will raise many back to life in paradise conditions, and they will never die again. One day Henson will open his eyes again, and if you put your trust and faith in his word, then you will see him again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all. Lossing a love one break the circle of life. The bible help us in time of tribulation as 2 Cor 1 :3-4. I am looking forward to the time when no one will will ever die, Isa.25:8. May all the 80 years of sharing with Mr. Henson help you all to keep your faith strong on the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
