

Herbert Clark

March 24, 1924 - August 1, 2008

HERBERT CLARK, son of the late Hester Parker and Alexander Clark, was born on March 24, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 1, 2008 after a lengthy illness at Union Memorial Hospital. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was baptized at St. Ann's Catholic Church and was a faithful member and usher until he became ill and could no longer attend church services. In 1976, he happily celebrated Holy Matrimony with the late Marble Hollie Clark. He was a devoted husband, step-father and step-grandfather to his extended family. Herbert (Known to his friends and family as Herb, Poppy or Pops) loved touring the city of Baltimore, you would see him any and everywhere. He loved to go sit at the Harbor, Lexington Market, Artscape and was an avid movie goer. Herbert had many friends and will be missed sorely by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: two step-daughters, Pauline Lewis (and Bernice Thornton, who preceded him in death); grandchildren, Brenda Royster, Joyce, Carolyn, James, Sharon and Kevin Thornton; great-grandchildren, Darlene, Tony, Karen, Alvin, Vertia, Stephanie and Dana; and a host of great-great-grandchildren, relatives and friends. Special recognition to his step-daughter Pauline Lewis, who was his caretaker, and Sharon Thornton, who visited him daily at the hospital and nursing home. To the both of you, the family thanks you.

Tribute Wall

“ Herbert Clark

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family of Herbert at this time. It seems so unfair when we lose a loved one, especially when that person had such a great love of life. It's so heartwrenching when they have to leave us, because it was never God's purpose for this to happen to any of us. One day he promises that all sickness, old-age, and even death will be done away with. Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and he will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." One day our loved ones will come to life again, because Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a resurrection of the righteous. May you be comforted by the hope of one day seeing your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort and peace, now and in the days to come, from, "the Father of tender mercies...the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. May you have comfort in Almighty God's promises at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Please take the time to read those promises and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Clark. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much solace and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM