

Herbert H. Gladden

January 10, 1925 - December 24, 2005

HERBERT HOOVER GLADDEN was born in South Carolina on January 10, 1925 to Lula and Alfred Gladden. His wife Mary Gladden preceded him in death three weeks before him. Herbert was one of fifteen children. All but one sister, Rosalee Gladden Spencer, preceded him in death. He was on the football team at Fulton High School in South Carolina. His number was #11. When he moved to Baltimore, he continued his last year in night school at Dunbar Senior High School. Mr. Gladden had a brief career in boxing known as Doc. Gladden. Shortly after he became a welder for the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Shipyard Division. In his spare time he fixed shoes with his brother James. He will be deeply missed by his sisters-in-law, Jessie, Aldena, Gertrude and Ruby Gladden. He has many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, plus three/four generations of cousins. To all of us, Herbert was the original "woof-woof man."

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My sympathy goes out to your family. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Acts 24:15. It tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Only then will we be able to look forward to paradise conditions.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
