

Herbert H. Hopkins

June 4, 1939 - November 16, 2004

Herbert Henry Hopkins, Sr., loving son of the late Joseph and Mabel Hopkins went home to be with the Lord on November 16, 2004 after a lengthy illness. Born in Baltimore, Maryland, Herbert attended Baltimore City Public Schools. As a teenager, and up until the present, he would sing with his brothers and friends their style of "doo-wop." Always the comedian, Herbert would always light up a room with jokes. He loved to make people laugh, in spite of the way he or you may have been feeling. He met and married Mabel Kraft. From this union, they had two children, Herbert Jr. and Mayetta. Herbert held various jobs in manual labor. He was employed with the City of Baltimore until he retired at the age of sixty-two. He confessed Christ as his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when he became a member of the God Shepherd Community Church of God in Christ Holiness in the spring of 2004. He will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his significant other, Ms. Valerie Ray; one son, Herbert Jr.; one daughter, Mellie; two sisters, Shirley Leach and Beatrice Cannon; two brothers, Walter Hopkins and Howard Hopkins; one brother-in-law, Warren Culbreath; two sisters-in-law, Rebecca Hopkins and Jeanette Hopkins; two brothers and two sisters who preceded him in death, William Sommers, Joseph Hopkins Jr., Mabel Honeycutt and Thelma Sanders Culbreath; grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of extended family and friends.
