

Herbert L. Jackson

January 9, 1953 - May 15, 2012

Herbert Lee Jackson, was the fifth of six children born to the late McKinley and Louise Jackson. He was born on January 9, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed this life on Tuesday, May 15, 2012.

Known to all as “Herb,” he grew up in Baltimore City and received religious training at the St. Abraham Baptist Church. He attended and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. Herb served as a member of the Maryland National Guard and was later employed as a business office equipment technician with Monroe Business Systems, C & E Ricoh Business Systems and Capitol Office Solutions.

He met and married his wife of thirteen years, the former Helen M. Johnson. Herb loved his family and enjoyed spending time with his children. He was a true friend and devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen M. Jackson; two daughters, Terry Jackson-Breedlove and Trebreh Jackson; three step-children, Tyshon, James and Tiara Johnson; three brothers, (one brother, Eric Jackson preceded him in death) Wardell Jackson, Richard L. Jackson and Reverend Melvin Jackson; one sister, Reverend Roberta Hamlin; life-long friends, Ralph and Linda Carter; five grandchildren, Khyir, Khymir, Jaylen, Amare and Amarkis Johnson; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
