

Herbert Jones

February 26, 1944 - January 20, 2005

Herbert Jones (also known as "Fats") was born on February 29, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Thursday, January 20, 2005, God saw the need for another flower in His garden. He came down to Johns Hopkins Hospital and gently touched and beckoned him home. Herbert was one of seven children born to Eloise Jones and the late Nokomis Jones. In 1959 he met Bernadette Johnson, known as "Dia," and out of this union came five children. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Over the years, he worked at several different jobs. Even though Fats started getting weak, he still enjoyed joking and helping others in need and sharing whatever he had. Herbert leaves to cherish his memory and carry on his mission: a loving, devoted mother, Eloise Jones; his children, Robin, Rhonda, Catherine, Daryl and Tonya; a brother, Ernest Graham; three sisters, Olivia Brogden, Shirley Wilson and Louise Graves; sixteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; two aunts, Mary Thompson and Emma Greene of New York. He also leaves to join in the celebration a host of nieces, nephews, other beloved relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
