“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ May I take this time to express my condolences to u all. Losing a dear one breaks the family circle . Knowing that others cares helps to heals the pains. Mr. Herbert lived to forfill the Holy Scriptures at Ps.90:10 where it says some would live to be 70 years and others 80 because of speiacle mightiness, he was 76 years old when he died. The time is coming very soon when no one will ever die at all. The greatest news to be told. I am looking forward to that time because I have lost many loved one in death too and know the feeling of pain and hurt. I hope these few uplifting words have encouragement. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Kearney's family and friends. The loss of a loved one is very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope the truth found in God's Word the Bible comforts your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
