

Herbert L. Buie

November 10, 1932 - July 17, 2003

Herbert L. Buie, son of Christine Webb Buie and the late Robert Buie, was born on November 10, 1932 in Broadway, North Carolina. He was called home to eternal “rest” on July 16, 2003. Herbert received his education and graduated from the public school system of Lee County, North Carolina. Upon finishing his education, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He was employed by the “Reads” Drug Store until he was drafted in 1953 to serve in the United States Army where he received an honorable discharge. Herbert returned to Baltimore after his military service and began working at a material factory and garage. He later gained other employment in 1955 by the Baltimore Transit Co., now known as the MTA where he diligently drove transit buses for forty-one years. Herbert joined the Catholic Church of St. Veronica’ for a number of years, and then moved to his present church, Saint Ambrose, where he served as a faithful member as well as a member of the collection counting team. Herbie, as he was fondly called, had a sweet spirit about him and would do anything he could to help anybody. He added humor to everyone’s heart each and everyday. He will surely be missed by all that came to know and love him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Christine Webb Buie; two sisters, Annie R. Graham of Baltimore, Maryland and Geneva McDougald of Sanford, Florida; a devote niece that he called his daughter, Donna Y. Jackson; two aunts, Elizabeth W. Buie of Baltimore, Maryland and Louise C. Webb of Broadway, North Carolina; a host of other special nieces, special nephews, other relatives and friends.
