

Herman Davis, Jr.

December 18, 1955 - October 25, 2012

Herman Davis, Jr., 56 was born December 18, 1955 to the late Agnes White and Willie Davis in Richmond, Virginia. He was called to the pearly gates October 25, 2012. He is preceded in death by his sister, Shirley Williams and brother, Clyde Davis.

At an early age, he joined Good Hopewell Baptist Church. Herman believed in God and had his own special relationship with his Lord and Savior. He graduated from John Marshall High School. After schooling, he served his country by enlisting in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge.

He retired from the General Defense Supply Center (Bellwood) as a security officer.

Herman had a gentle spirit and would always lend a helping hand of support to neighbors and friends in whatever way he could. He touched many lives in so many ways. Herman was loved by many. He was a very caring, compassionate and supportive person who loved his family.

We are so fortunate to have had him in our lives for so many years and we feel empty without him. Because of the wonderful love he shared, Herman will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory two caring sisters, Deaconess Betty Brown and Linda Harrison (Jesse); two loving brothers, Willie and Calvin (Francesca) Davis; a devoted ex-wife, Annie Davis; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
