

Herman Dwayne Jackson

February 22, 1948 - November 2, 2009

DWAYNE JACKSON (known as “Jackie”), son of Annie L. Jackson and the late Herman Jackson, was born on February 22, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He passed away after a lengthy illness on November 2, 2009. He obtained his early education from the Harriet Tubman Elementary School in Baltimore City. He furthered his education in New York City public schools, attending George Gershwin Junior High School, Boys High School and Andrew Jackson High School. Following high school, Dwayne served honorably in the United States Air Force. He was later employed by the Veterans Administration Hospital, here in Baltimore, as a clerk. As a child, he attended the First Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Dwayne has a whole host of friends and was fondly known by several nicknames such as D.J. and Ken Norton. Dwayne is survived by: his daughter, Angela Scoot; granddaughter, Yasmin McIntyre; mother, Annie L. Jackson; two sisters, Annette Grant and Linda Brown-Sutphin; two brothers, Wendell G. Jackson and William M. Jackson; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Wayne will be missed by all; from his mother who always cared, by his family who dearly loved him, to his friends and co-workers... he will always be missed.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Jackson's family. The loss of a loved one can be very painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.###imported-begin###Valerie Johnson###imported-end###
