“ Mr. Fortson was like a Daddy to me in many ways. He loved me and for a kid who was 15 and needed that, it was precious. I loved him too and he knew it. If you know the Fortson's and their friends in the MD area you probably know me. They are family to me, TIGHT. Mr Fortson 99% shared laughs, great stories and love with me and 1% discipline because I needed it. Again, it only made me love him more. His children are my siblings and we all share so much and will continue to. My kids will hear about Kilgore Texas, the US Army, Germany and Mr. Fortson and I pray my descendants will too.....because they deserve to and he deserves to be remembered always. I love you Mr Fortson and the next time I see you I think we won't even speak, we'll just embrace and laugh. I love you,
