

Herman Hampton

December 13, 1934 - January 6, 2024

Herman Hampton, born on December 16, 1934 , in Turbeville, South Carolina, to Jeremiah Watson Hampton, passed away peacefully at his home on January 6, 2024. Surrounded by his loving family, Herman's final days were spent in the comforting presence of his son Lamont and daughter-in-law Tonoah Hampton, who diligently cared for him during his last.

Herman's life was marked by hard work and dedication. He spent many years as a gravedigger, a job that, while challenging, he performed with dignity and respect. Later, he continued his career as a maintenance worker with Broadway Services in Baltimore, Maryland, where his reliability and strong work ethic were greatly appreciated.

While his professional life was important, Herman's true joy was found in his family. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. His wife and children, Cecelia and Jeremiah Hampton, who preceded him in death, were always close to his heart. Herman's love and legacy continue through his son Lamont, daughter-in-law Tonoah, and his cherished grandchildren LaMonica, Giovanni, Diamond, Chanel, and Noah. His nieces Glenda, Vivian, and Deborah also holds a special place in the family, remembering him fondly.

Herman's presence will be clearly missed but his memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew him. In his passing, Herman leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, and the value of a life well-lived. His family is grateful for the time spent with him, especially his precious moments with his grandchildren, which will be treasured forever.

In remembrance of Herman Hampton, a man of strength, character, and love, we bid farewell but not goodbye, for his spirit lives on in each of us.
