

Herman Martin Marsh, Sr.

March 12, 1945 - June 8, 2010

On Tuesday, June 8, 2010, God set free our Beloved, Herman Martin Marsh, Sr. His life began on March 12, 1945, the son of the late Mary E. Barlow and the late Orange Martin.

Herman was raised and loved by the Deacon Robert and Alice James.

He was educated in the Williamsburg-James City County Public Schools. He served 8 years in the Military (Viet Nam War).

Herman was formerly employed by the Byrd Airport Limousine Service. He drove a tractor and trailer for Eastern Transport and for Mobil Oil Transport for many years. He was self-employed in a Landscaping Business.

Herman loved and enjoyed playing his guitar. He was inspired and taught by his grandfather, Deacon Robert James, whom he called "Pop". He played for Maggie Ingram and the Ingrams and for the Mighty Gospettes, both groups from the Richmond area. He enjoyed fishing and he loved the water. Herman also loved his family and he was a "family man" who loved to cook and entertain his guests.

His loving and precious memories will be forever treasured by his devoted wife, Mary Marsh; two daughters, Lorraine Woolfolk (Edward) and Stephanie Morton(Everett);four sons,Warren Frazier(Shannon),Clifton Frazier(La`Talia),Herman Marsh,Jr.(Regina) and Eric Marsh;23 grandchildren,3 great-grandchildren;one sister,Carolyn Barlow;two aunts,Georgia Braxton and Juanita Cowles;one brother-in-law,Joseph Redwood;a host of nieces,nephews,cousins and many loving and caring friends.
