

Herman J. Moore

December 24, 1952 - June 13, 2014

HERMAN JEROME MOORE was born on December 24, 1952 in Kenbridge, Virginia. He received his eternal reward on June 13, 2014. The son of the late Herman W. Moore and the late Bessie Jester-Herman, who was better known by his middle name "Jerome", was a man of Christian faith. While attending West Hill Baptist Church, Jerome accepted Christ as his savior at an early age. Jerome received his formal education at Lunenburg High School in Lunenburg, Virginia. During his lifetime, he was married to and divorced from Audrey Reese. No children were born of that union, but Jerome was a loving and caring father figure to his nieces and nephews. Jerome shared an especially close relationship with his niece Gervene. Jerome was an admirer of classic automobiles, and he was especially proud to own his 1979 Cadillac. He loved to repair cars for his friends and family members. Jerome was a music lover who enjoyed listening to classic R&B, classic soul and gospel songs. Jerome had an unmatched zest for life. Jerome was a good-hearted man who loved to laugh and have a good time. He leaves to cherish his memory: two beloved sisters, Sarah Kenner and Cleopatra King; two beloved brothers, Algje Moore and Raymond Jester, Sr.; six aunts, Edith Goode, Mary Sewell, Mable Johnson, Margie Smith, Sarah Revis, and Edna Walker; beloved uncle, Eddie Johnson; two special friends, Lula and Charmaine; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, and friends.

MY SPECIAL UNCLE It takes many special qualities to make an uncle like you, A lot of care and kindness and understanding, too... It takes a special kind of love that seems to know no end And the thoughtfulness and patience of a true and trusted friend... It takes many special qualities to make an uncle like you, And that's why you are loved so much, today and always. Love, Vene
