

Hester M. Garris

April 30, 1944 - November 6, 2019

Hester Mae Garris was the daughter of the late Redus and Powell Garris. She was born on April 30, 1944 in Sumter, South Carolina. Hester departed this life after a lengthy sickness on November 6, 2019.

Hester (better known as "Jang") was the seventh of ten children. Hester received her education in South Carolina. She came to Baltimore for the first time in 1958. Hester called many places home throughout her life. After living in Baltimore for a little while, she moved to Florida, back to South Carolina, then to Delaware, and finally lived her remaining years in Baltimore, Maryland. While she was in Baltimore, she attended Greater Remnant Church of God in Christ.

She absolutely loved to work. Everyone at her job loved her and her contagious smile. When Hester worked at the Hyatt Regency in Baltimore, she won numerous awards as employee of the month. She also loved when she would see her great-nephew, Da'Kuawn. Whenever she saw him, she would immediately light up.

During Hester's sickness she had a lot of prayer and support. Her sister, Jessie and her nieces, Teresa and Kim, advocated for her care during this time. Hester was dearly loved and will be missed.

The loving imprint of Hester will forever linger in the hearts and minds of those who loved her including her sister, Jessie Lee; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Preceding her death are siblings: Mary Nelson, Lily Mae Smith, Kathleen Garris, Rita Montgomery, Rebecca Green, Isaac Garris, Emma Jean Russell, and Willie Garris.
