

Hezekiah Hall

December 13, 1929 - September 25, 2012

HEZEKIAH HALL, a great son, born into family lineage of the late King Hall and the late Laddie Hall on December 13, 1929 in Black Stock, South Carolina.

He was the fifteenth of sixteen children. Fourteen preceded him in death. Hezekiah closed his eyes gently on September 25, 2012, after a short illness and peacefully passed the mantle of his as he was being transitioned into the Kingdom of Eternal Destiny.

He was educated in the public schools of South Carolina. For many years he worked at Domino Sugar, Inc.

Uncle Hezekiah was unique in his own way. He was cool, with style and class. He was known for his hats and quiet spirit. He loved to watch western movies. His favorite place to be was the North East Market. If you asked him his name, he would tell you, "Hezekiah, Obadiah, Ringa, Linga, Booker T, Hall," With a dance which was his signature moment. He was a man of great strength who surrounded his life around his family and friends.

Hezekiah had a very close, intimate relationship with his brothers, and sisters, He also traveled every year with his brothers to South Carolina to attend Revival at Pilgrim Church with family and friends.

He had a favorite niece, Beatrice Curbeam who he loved very much.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: Sallie J. Hill and Willie B. Peterson; a host of nieces, nephews, and friends

Uncle Hezekiah will be truly missed by us all.

“ "If a man dies, can he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) Perhaps you to have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible? The Bible makes this promise "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." (Isaiah 26"19) Almighty God assures us that if we take in accurate knowledge of him and his son, Christ Jesus and live by bible standards, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again in the near future where we will live on a paradise earth forever. (Psalm 37:29)

I hope this has brought you a measure of comfort and I pray that you seek to know what the bible really teaches about this wonderful time.

“ Dear Hall Family;

Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. Hezekiah will no doubt be missed by many. Death is never an easy thing to accept. Death is not normal, this is why the Bible says that "death will be brought to nothing" (1 Corinthians 15:26) The Bible also speaks about a resurrection of "both the righteous and unrighteous" this is called the Resurrection Hope. (Acts 24:15) Jesus provided a foregleam of this hope when he resurrected his friend Lazarus. (John 11:42-44) Please review these scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible and may Jehovah the God of "all Comfort" comfort you during this most difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3) (Psalms 83:18)

*Sincerely,
Sister Hughes*
