“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Pslm37:11,37). May you find solace in the God in God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Jesus said that the day will come when all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28+29) So we can have every confidence that the day will come. May Jehovah the God of truth and comfort be with you. ##imported-begin##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Bagby's family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie. -Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible. ##imported-begin## Valerie Johnson ##imported-end##
