“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of the death of my step-Grandmother Hilda. She was the stepmother of my father Joseph Wheatley. I met Hilda for the first time at my father's funeral. I talked to her in May of 2005. I am so sorry I didn't have the opportunity to get to know her. May God be with you all.##imported-begin##Mia Wheatley Tripp##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences for your loss. The Bible is a written record for our 'comfort, hope and peace'- (Romans 15:4,13) One comforting promise is the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength as you ponder over the wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
